

Preventive Measures

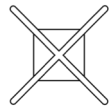

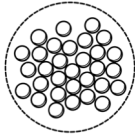

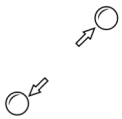

Coronavirus (Covid-19) is very contagious. That means it is easy for people to catch. To help protect, people are using social distancing. That means keeping 6 feet apart from all people not in your family. People also wear gloves on their hands and masks over their mouths to help stop the spread of germs.

What is the article about?

Preventive Measures

Taking a Shower

Cooking Dinner